

“ The spirit of the Regents’ Cup is reflective of Justice O’Connor’s career – one that was epitomized by respect and civil discourse,” said O’Connor Institute Chief Executive Officer Sarah Suggs. “ There is no better place to showcase the art of civil discourse than our nation’s college campuses, incubators for leaders of the future – in Arizona and throughout the world.”

I agree! Let us all gather for the Regents’ Cup – and may the best argument win!
