"The spirit of the Regents' Cup is reflective of Justice O'Connor's career – one that was epitomized by respect and civil discourse," said O'Connor Institute Chief Executive Officer Sarah Suggs. "There is no better place to showcase the art of civil discourse than our nation's college campuses, incubators for leaders of the future – in Arizona and throughout the world."

I agree! Let us all gather for the Regents' Cup – and may the best argument win!
